Behind the picket fence is a captivating home offering an elegant blend of classic and contemporary features, updated throughout to enhance the home's character and appeal.

A sympathetic extension to the rear of the home has created a private main bedroom with ENSUITE & Robes opening via French doors to a leafy vista, a light drenched kitchen with large picture windows overlooking the wide covered wrap around veranda with a perfect North East aspect and the family bathroom including a clever European laundry.

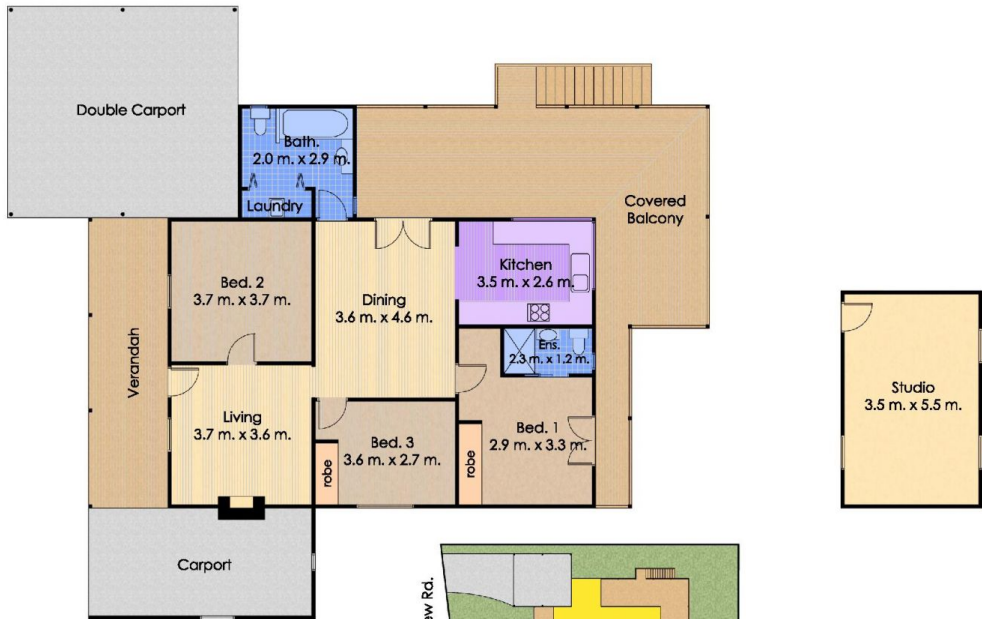

The original area of the home includes two further bedrooms, a sitting room with JINDARA wood heating fireplace and a spacious family dining area which flows onto the outdoor entertaining veranda - presenting a desirable indoor/outdoor lifestyle.

Either side of the home are two carports with additional space for further vehicles in the drive and the fully fenced level rear garden features a detached studio. Extra storage under the house is a bonus for the home handyman or
