

39 Turner Street Lambton NSW

2 1 1

POSITIONED in a highly sought after street this gracious home has been in the one family since 1942.

The large covered semi-circular verandah opens to a wide entry hallway leading to two well-proportioned bedrooms, a central bathroom, spacious living and dining room, an updated eat-in kitchen with dishwasher, light drenched sunroom and an enclosed verandah leading to the laundry and WC.

The fully fenced allotment of 540² meters of established gardens includes a side driveway leading to the rear of the block. There is a level lawn from the street to the home and a gently sloping lawn in the backyard.

Freshly painted inside and recarpeted the very comfortable home enjoys high ceilings, a peaceful leafy outlook and an abundance of space and natural light.

Conveniently positioned within minutes of the John Hunter Hospital, Lambton Village shops, cafes and eateries, Lambton Park, West Leagues Club and a short drive to major shopping centres, Newcastle University and Calvary
